Caring for someone as they approach the end of their life is not the same as caring for someone who is going to get better. Unfortunately, most people don't know this. International Humanitarian Woman of the Year 2015, Barbara Karnes, RN created the award winning "New Rules For End of Life Care" an educational kit that teaches people how to care for their loved one during the end of their life. Whether the patient is at home, in a nursing home or hospital this kit will give you the valuable information you need to understand the dying process. Package includes 25 Minute DVD supplement and two Booklet supplements. DVD: important information on end of life care that addresses behavior changes as they pertain to food, sleep and pain management. BLUE BOOKLET: "Gone from My Sight"- Detailed account of what you should expect to see in the time approaching death from old age or disease. PINK BOOKLET: "The Eleventh Hour"- A caring guideline for the hours to minutes before death. Knowledge reduces the fear of death and helps with grieving. New Rules For End of Life Care is an educational kit to be read and viewed at the patient's home, in a nursing facility, hospice/palliative care unit or hospital. AWARDS: 2015 Telly Award Winner for Health and Wellness and 2015 Communicator Award, Gold Award of Excellence: Film/Video on Social Issues. It won a 2015 Gold Award in Consumer Education Programs and a Merit for Books/ Publications from The Nation Mature Media Awards as well as a 2015 Gold Award in Total Health Information Programs from the National Health Information Awards. FILM FESTIVALS: The film also has garnered an International Award of Merit from International Film Festival for Environment, Health and Culture (IFFEHC) 2015. It's an official selection in the Global Health Film Festival 2015. As well as an official selection for Film Fest 52, Awareness Festival 2015, Global Public Health Film Festival 2015.
