Trickster's Torah: A Never-Ending book Steven Johnson Leyba, Blaire Black

The Trickster's Torah is a fierce declaration of creativity in action, against a world of fascist trends, censorship, and oppression. It picks up where the Trickster's Koran left off, revealing a “Third Way” where people can be empowered to be creative agents in their own lives. This volume reflects on our ability to turn convention upside-down to reveal how ridiculous all cultures are so we never forget our instincts and never become slaves to dead ideas and beliefs used as modern control systems. You are the creator so create! Rather than have our hopes, dreams, sexuality and imaginations sold back to us by Corporate culture, celebrity culture, the Church, or State, it shows us “to create is spiritual,” to create is part of the “human spirit.” A book of Art and Life in action, suitable for anyone interested in applied survival and creativity in an uncertain 21st Century. A never-ending book in it's fourth incarnation with new insights and elaborations of "The Coyotel Way" and "The Trickster's Bible."
