G-Spot Chronicles is a black erotic book, which takes place in Bed-sty Brooklyn. It peaks inside the lives of 20-something African-American Brooklyn-born and bred friends. Raymond: struggling to end his highly erratic, 'drauma-cidal' fling with Cassandra, a woman he is deeply infatuated with sexually. However, Cassandra possesses a mouth-watering demeanor, and her unwillingness to give back the keys makes it much harder to break up, than Raymond ever imagined. Kim: separated, undersexed, and icy. She is on a quest to find her sexual self, and wishes to answer her inner pleas for gratification and sexual exploration. Sharon: an erotic dancer, who gets involved with Shon, a womanizing porn publisher. He is a man she's had sexual desires for. An unexpected turns of events creates new experiences for Sharon and her best friend, Kim. Petra makes her mark in life, by hosting in-house sex parties, where she is the only female participant. Petra is the welfare queen, who refuses to slow down her promiscuous ways, and constantly leaps into the pool of male testosterone, with both eyes wide shut. Kareem: a slick-talking, outwardly quiet dude, with a hidden agenda. He and Raymond swap stories, beating one another's narrative experiences every time.
