THE RETURN OF THE SOLDIER; THE JUDGE; HENRY JAMES (A BIOGRAPHY) (Timeless Wisdom Collection Book 1770) REBECCA WEST

This volume contains the first two novels and the first biography (of Henry James) ever written by beloved Dame Rebecca West, the British prolific author, journalist, literary critic and travel writer, who wrote in many genres. Committed to feminist and liberal principles, she was one of the foremost public intellectuals of the twentieth century.

The Return of the Soldier (1918), is the first World War I novel written by a woman. A shell-shocked, amnesiac soldier returns from World War I, hoping of being reunited with his first love, a working-class woman, instead of continuing to live with his upper-class wife.

In The Judge (1922), a brooding and passionate novel, she combines Freudian Oedipal themes with suffragism and an existential take on cosmic absurdity.

In the Biography of the renowned author Henry James, she provides an in deep analysis of his work, from the standpoint of an author herself, giving a beautiful portrait full of insight into the mind of the literary genius.
