Hanuman is one of the main characters in the Indian epic Ramayana. He is a langur (monkey) deity revered by Hindus for being an exemplar of pure devotion, selfless service, complete surrender, egolessness and prana. Hanuman's reputation as a great devotee comes through his service to Rama. As a monkey, Hanuman represents the ever restless monkey mind that constantly jumps from one thing to the next. Hanuman's life was an example of how focusing inward and devoting ourselves to a higher cause can make us become as highly connected with our true self as Hanuman.
