Where Is the God of Justice?: Biblical Perspectives on Suffering Warren McWilliams

This title considers questions such as: Is God just? Can we trust Him? and, Why do people suffer? A comprehensive theology of suffering - from infertility to betrayal and from war to natural disasters, it considers suffering in relation to the practical wisdom of Scripture and Christian thought. "McWilliams discusses almost every conceivable type of human suffering and examines it in light of Scripture with an eye toward pastoral care." - Roger E. Olson. It is an invaluable resource for ministers, counselors and all who struggle with questions of pain and suffering
