Dried flower arrangements are again becoming popular home accents, as fresh designs spark renewed interest in this classic craft. This inspiring project book features step-by-step instruction for creating 25 all-new dried flower arrangements and wreaths perfect for any space or style. Readers will learn how to decorate any blank wall, tabletop or mantelpiece with confidence - and get stunning results every time. Each arrangement reveals the warm colours and rich textures of real flowers, grasses, dried fruits and botanicals in fresh and original ways. Every project features a complete materials list, expert arranging tips and easy-to-follow instructions. Beginners will learn how to select, care for and handle dried flowers. Several basic drying techniques are taught - from air drying to microwaving to using silica gel. Readers are shown how to match a project to their personal decor with simple changes to the colours or container style. Projects are grouped into centerpieces, hanging arrangements and holiday decorations, plus a bonus gift gallery with more quick decorating ideas.
