Lucy remembers everything. She remembers the moment she was born. She remembers how she was born and she remembers what that makes her. Gabriel has managed to unlock her memories and now she can't escape them as they play out inside her eyes. She's finally getting some answers to the questions that have plagued her life, but will they be what she wanted them to be?

Daniel wasn't always called Daniel. In fact, he didn't take that name until he made a decision that he knew he would regret for eternity. What forced him to change his name and what was the choice that led him to it?
