"How can everything feel so familiar when one hasn't been here before?" Antique store owner, Emma Tanner, ponders that very question while on a buying trip in Charleston, South Carolina. Could these feelings of déjà-vu have anything to do with the new acquisition in the store back in Texas – and the strange vibes that come from it? Why does she constantly feel she is being followed? And what of her haunting visions of the past? During her stay, Emma learns of events that make her re-evaluate her life... and her floundering relationship with her partner.
