Thou shall kill: in order to live! Being a drug lords' woman proves to be no easy task; especially when you're obligated to take over the business that has been nurtured by your man for countless years. After the arrest of her lover, Carlos, Kamille 'Kami' Lathan, holds down the business until his long awaited return. Kamille quickly learns that nothing last forever as she witnesses Carlos' murder in their own home. Abandoned, now for the second time in her life and feeling indebted to him; she immediately picks up where he left off. With Carlos' best friend Joe, by her side, Kamille can't go wrong. Always a lover of the streets and respected throughout the city of Atlanta, Kamille finds it easier, by the day, to take another persons' life in order to maintain the crown that has been passed to her. Having her best friend, Natasha, around to assist in the day-to-day dealings of the dope world; they form a clique of female hustlers, gangsters, murderers and robbers. With Kamille holding the lead, the group is unstoppable. While plotting her revenge on the king pin believed to be responsible for Carlos' death, Kamille's life begins to spiral out of control. Her once desirable life quickly becomes an erupted volcano with never ending duplicity. Greed sheds light on so-called friends and jealousy of Kamille's success rears its ugly head; life as she knows it, falls apart. Who can she trust? Where can she turn? Giving up and bailing out is not an option. For reasons unknown, Kamille finds herself wanted dead by those she once shared close bonds with. Stemming from an entourage that catered to her every need; she finds herself nearly alone with only a few people in the world that she can completely depend on. Creating new plans, moving fast, meeting new hustlers and murdering her enemies is the only way for her to maintain her rightfully earned title as the Candy Lady.
