Over 15,000 words.

A comprehensive step-by-step guide to academic essay writing by an author who has written hundreds of such essays during his undergraduate and 6 years of graduate studies.

All the main points are illustrated by multiple examples.

Writing essays is a necessity that most students face on a regular basis. Many times a student's graduation or acceptance to a good school depends on writing a good essay.

Knowing how to structure and write a "compare and contrast" essay, for example, is an important advantage for high school and college students.

This ebook focuses on how to write the academic essay; that is, an essay that argues a point and tries to prove it by logical presentation of counter arguments and supporting facts.
