If you are taking a cruise to the Baltic Sea, Norwegian fjords or British Isles, this is an indispensable travel guide. Each chapter provides cultural and practical information, with accurate maps for getting around in the ports and cities. Tour maps in the book also show exactly where the ships dock and help readers pinpoint the local attractions. The editorial text gives concise descriptions of the sites to capture the essence of each locale.

In addition to covering the ports of call on Northern Europe and Baltic cruises, this book also provides readers with information on shore excursions, art and architecture, history, and great tips on preparing for your cruise.

Includes ports of the British Isles, Netherlands, France, Belgium, Scandinavia, the Baltic States, Russia, Poland and Germany.
