Three new titles to complete the series!

This series of dig-deep studies provides an excellent framework for youth workers to help teenagers to love God and to desire a growing relationship with him. The flexible 45- to 60-minute sessions address timely, important topics surrounding personal character in teenagers' lives. They'll get practical ideas for applying God-centered character traits to their lives...and discover how to live out their growing faith. Get one 4-session book for each participant to journal and reflect on what they discover about God...the Bible...and themselves.
