Because I Said So Junior: A Biblical Study of Obedience Kim Sorgius

Journey through scripture and learn about people who struggled with obedience in this 26- page study that includes HOW, WHY, and WHEN we should obey. Children will be challenged to seek answers in the Bible for the number one issue in their lives: obedience. Each day is filled with a look at someone in the Bible who had real struggles just like they do. Children will be challenged to think about the scripture and apply it to their lives. There are two versions of the study. One is written for 3rd-6th grade students to work through independently or for a family to work through together. The junior version is written for children ages 4-7 to work through with a parent. Both versions align together for a seamless family study. If you work 20-30 minutes a day, the flexible schedule will span about 3-4 weeks.

Jesus Moreno:

As a student exactly feel bored to be able to reading. If their teacher requested them to go to the library as well as to make summary for some book, they are complained. Just little students that has reading's spirit or real their leisure activity. They just do what the educator want, like asked to go to the library. They go to right now there but nothing reading very seriously. Any students feel that studying is not important, boring and also can't see colorful photos on there. Yeah, it is to get complicated. Book is very important for you. As we know that on this age, many ways to get whatever we really wish for. Likewise word says, ways to reach Chinese's country. Therefore this Because I Said So Junior: A Biblical Study of Obedience can make you truly feel more interested to read.
