When the Cherokee Strip was opened to homesteaders September 16th, 1893, over a hundred thousand people..... some say as many as a hundred and fifty thousand....had gathered at starting lines ready to race out into six and a half million acres of Oklahoma prairie land to claim a homestead. They came from every state and territory and from abroad. Among them were doctors and lawyers, farmers and housewives, cowboys and drifters. They came together on the tall grass prairies at the edge of the Cherokee Strip and waited for the signal that would open the gates to their own personal Promised Land. As the noon hour approached that hot, dusty Saturday, the Run of '93 was just a gunshot away... Introduction, The Cherokee Strip, The Cattlemen and The Run Of 89, Lines Of Death, The Sooners, The Run Of 93, Homesteaders, Closing and Credits, Total Run Time 60:34
