They hire some consultants from the FAD group and a new management philosophy is launched, the Corporate Resource Allocation Planning, or CRAP.

Betty tries to handle the changes with her normal problem solving and “do the best out of the situation” mentality but the conditions keep getting worse until they are beyond sanity.

Curt the Fox, Betty’s best friend, see her personality change and her health deteriorate by the day but cannot get through to her. Will he and Betty’s other friends be able to help her before it’s too late?
