Earlier Crayons had quit out of boredom of coloring same boring pictures again and again, they went deep into underground, where no child can reach. One fine morning, the crayon leader came out of hiding to find out, "how has world changed without them". He found a child using a dot pen to color the new "Big Preschool Workbook", the child was finding is very difficult to color using dot pen and asked for help from the crayon leader, the crayon leader obliged, the child got delighted and gave the crayon leader a tight hug. The child went running to his grandma to show the crocodile that he just completed coloring. He requested the crayon leader to accompany him to his house. Crayon leader went underground with a copy of the new "Preschool Color & Activity Book"

All crayons got delighted and agreed to come back to the child's home. They came back and hugged the child and demanded that the child should start coloring the new "Big Preschool Workbook" immediately. The child obliged.
