Blood Lust in Whitby and Highgate.: An introduction to English Vampire Lore and History. Mr James J Browne

Despite having been a professional clairvoyant James J. Browne's take on English vampire lore is simultaneously both level headed and rational. This volume constitutes a solid approach to the legends and history of English vampires. Dracula's connection with Whitby, the Croglan Grange Vampire and the relatively recent Highgate Cemetery Vampire are scrutinized in this informative and intriguing book. This is the book for the reader who requires a straightforward explanation of the role of the "undead" in English literature and history. The writer believes he has provided enough information, within this easily digestible volume, for the reader to become a potted expert in this field.
