“... Christmas is about love and giving. It’s a time to remember past traditions and make up new ones...”
The Anderson family loves Christmas. You could even call them Christmas junkies. After moving up north, Mark, Carla and their children Cindy and Tony, finally get their postcard Christmas of warm fires and snow. As the big day approaches, it’s a joyous time for everyone, except for Tony. Adjusting to a new school can be hard on a nine-year old and he’s ruining Christmas for everyone. In this holiday story, the magic of Christmas comes to life in the most unusual of places. For young and old alike, this magical tale of finding Christmas spirit is sure to become a new tradition for Christmases to come.
