Temples of the New Millenium: Facts, Stories, and Miracles from the First 150 Temples Chad Hawkins
Commemorating the landmark occasion of the dedication of the 150th operating temple of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, Temples of the New Millennium brings together little-known facts and compelling true stories of the faith and miracles behind 150 latter-day houses of the Lord. In telling the story of each temple through the words and experiences of those who built it, this beautiful keepsake volume will give your family an even greater appreciation for the marvelous work that the Lord is directing on both sides of the veil. Each temple is a labor of love, faith, and sacrifice. Find out why President Gordon B. Hinckley proclaimed this "the greatest era of temple building ever witnessed" as you come to know and love each house of the Lord better than ever before with Temples of the New Millennium.
