La Dolce Vita: Living the Good Life Stephen A Di Biase

"La Dolce Vita", The Good Life, was an act of love stimulated by our children who graciously requested that I capture my point of view on life for them and to share with family members to come. What an incredible honor to have such a request from one's grown and successful children, before I'm dead, since writing from beyond the grave is somewhat tricky. My life has been wonderful, and one better than I deserve, given the "hand I was dealt." Losing my mother at age 4, becoming seriously and chronically ill at 15, and being no better than average in everything else without having much money. What has been wonderful about my life? A great spouse, children, grandchildren, and successful career more than 20 years in the "C-suite". How did this happen? That is what I share in "La Dolce Vita" for anyone looking for an example of creating the good life for themselves
