God speeds the Plough: A WWI love story Rhiannon Curtis

A short story of approximately 5,600 words:

"God speeds the plough, and the woman who drives it." The recruiting posters for the Women's Land Army glossed over the mud, long hours, hard work ... or the uniform. Recovering from a recent trauma, Mary never expected to find love in the middle of Farmer Goronwy Evans' potato harvest. A wounded soldier, on leave from the killing fields of France, captured her heart in a way she had always dreamed about but never thought possible...
