How To Swear In German: All The Dirty Words And Insulting Phrases You Need To Know Fritz Müller

In "How To Swear In German: All The Dirty Words And Insulting Phrases You Need To Know", Bavarian author Fritz Müller presents to you the filthiest curses and most vulgar expletives the German language has to offer.

This guide is perfect for you if you want to...

- ...offend Germans, Austrians and Swiss.
- ...baffle your German-speaking friends and colleagues with your language skills.
- ...plan on visiting the Oktoberfest.
- ...learn things about Kraut culture that they won't tell you in school.
- ...know what "Rammstein" and other bands are actually singing.

"How To Swear In German" is a cross-language dictionary which lists 356 English swearwords and their German translations, complete with phonetic spelling and comments on linguistic details. You can verbally abuse people for months without running out of words!

Among them are rare regional terms that even many Germans don't know. Become better at swearing in their language than the Huns themselves!

All expressions can be reached quickly via the table of contents.

* Please note that this book is aimed at an adult audience and not suited for children. *

The author is on FaceBook as "Müller Fritz" and looking forward to your comments.
