Book 2 in the Blogger Diaries Trilogy. These books are NOT STANDALONE and must be read in order. Please read Wished for You before reading this story. Kayla's Chick Rant & Book Blog Blog Post
Heartbroken and devastated, I moved back home to North Carolina after the man I loved more than anything told me he didn't want me anymore. After my disastrous dating history, I had finally found the one, my soul mate, and then he just threw me away like I meant nothing to him. So, what was I supposed to do now? I did what any woman who had her heart ripped to shreds would do. I rebounded. And I rebounded hard. My life spun and progressed at whirlwind speed as I tried desperately to fill the hole Jason had left inside me. I had myself fooled for a while there, until the newness of everything wore off, until the whirlwind slowed to a grinding halt and I was forced to stop and realize exactly what I'd done. I suppose I could've trained myself to be content with Aiden, but all I did was... Wish He Was You This is book 2 in the Blogger Diaries Trilogy. It CANNOT be read as a standalone. Please read book 1, Wished for You, before beginning this continuation of the story.
